

Coast Lines, April 14, 2011

Posted: 04/14/2011 01:30:44 AM PDT

SANTA CRUZ

Coin collectors to visit Santa Cruz

Residents can have the worth of their old coins and paper currency evaluated through Saturday at the Inn at Pasatiempo.

The evaluations are being conducted by collectors with the International Coin Collectors Association. It is looking for items issued prior to 1965, as well as other items such as class rings, gold coins and bullion.

The event will be at the Inn at Pasatiempo is at 555 Highway. 17, Santa Cruz. For information, call 217-726-7590 or go to www.internationalcoincollectors.com.

SANTA CRUZ

Live music, family activities offered

The Beach Flats community is holding a free Day of the Child celebration Sunday, with live music, games and activities for children ages 2 to 12.

The event is scheduled 2-4:4 p.m. at Beach Flats Park, 122 Raymond St. From 2-4 p.m., local band Ancestree will perform.

Food and refreshment sales will benefit IMAGINE academic support and enrichment program, Beach Flats Family School, Barrios Unidos Kids Club, Raices de Santa Cruz folklorico dance group and Las Posadas, raising funds for new children's costumes.