WATSONVILLE - School's out, and many children face the prospect of missing the meals offered in campus cafeterias.

But hundreds of children won't have to miss out thanks to free lunches being offered at six sites, starting Monday and running through Aug. 5.

La Manzana Community Resources is sponsoring the Summer Food Service Program, which is funded through federal and state dollars as well as the Driscoll's Charitable Fund at the Community Foundation.

All children, 18 and younger, can participate, and through a partnership with the city, organized activities, such as games and sports, arts and crafts, and computer time, will accompany meals.

The program will run at the following times and locations:

- 12:15-1:15 p.m. Tuesday-Friday, Callaghan Park, 225 Sudden St.
- Noon-1 p.m. Monday-Thursday, La Manzana Community Resources, 521 Main St.
- 12:45-1:45 p.m. Monday-Friday, Marinovich Park, 118 W. Second St.
- Noon-1 p.m. Monday-Thursday, Neighborhood Services, 37 Davis St.
- 12:30-1:30 p.m. Monday-Friday, Ramsay Park, 1301 Main St.
- 12:30-1:30 p.m. Monday-Friday, YWCA, 340 E.

Beach St.
